Fan Ho – 100 Photographs will take you on a seductive journey through the lens and eyes of this little known master, Fan Ho, as he depicts a Hong Kong of the 1950's and 1960's. This exhibition will include original vintage photographs printed by Ho over 50 years ago, as well as 20 newly released limited edition prints of such favorites as Approaching Shadow, 1954; Street Scene, 1956; Controversy, 1956; and several others previously only available as vintage prints. In addition, Modernbook Gallery will release for the first time many previously unseen works from the vintage archives of Fan Ho.

This exhibit coincides with the much anticipated release of Modernbook Editions' publication of a new book by Fan Ho, Hong Kong Yesterday with introduction by John Bennette and afterword by Mark Pinsukanjana and Bryan Yedinak. Beautifully printed in a limited edition of just 1000 copies, the book is hard cover, 9.5 x 11 inches, 112 pages with 70 dual-color plates.
